

representing creators of compelling places and experiences worldwide

TEA Proud Member

Your Name Here

The Themed Entertainment Association is an internationally recognized alliance representing an extraordinary collective of talented companies and individuals dedicated to envisioning, producing and operating the best in compelling places and experiences worldwide.

David Willrich

International Board President